“Into the Woods” Musical/Ford’s Theater

With lyrics by Stephen Sondheim from the book by James Lapine, “Into the Woods”, the musical, intertwines the plots of several Brothers Grimm and Charles Perrault fairy tales, exploring the consequences of the characters' wishes and quests.

Ford’s Theater :

The site of the assassination of U.S. President Abraham Lincoln on April 14, 1865, Ford’s Theater continues to offer Theater performances for the public. After seeing the performance of Into the Woods, your performance ticket gets you a historic site visit. This includes the Peterson house, which is where Lincoln died. It also includes an aftermath exhibit talking about the impact after his death.

“STOMP” Performance

Stomp is a percussion group, originating in Brighton, United Kingdom that uses the body and ordinary objects to create a physical theatre and visual comedy performance using rhythms, acrobatics and pantomime

DC Improv: Comedy Sportz Workshop :

Unique blend of fast, funny and smart improv comedy played as a sport. Teams create comedy scenes, songs and games on the spot. Student participation controls the results.

Capital Steps :

Comedy Group, skits and song mocking politicians. Lots of clips online.

(And if we’re lucky, it might still be Cherry Blossom season in Washington!!)
